

2010 BRIDGING GENERATIONS YOUTH ART EXHIBIT

Dear WRAA Members,

The year 2004 marked the 50th year for WRAA. To celebrate, WRAA held the first "Bridging Generations" Youth Exhibit and Auction as a fund raiser for the Wisconsin Regional Art Program (WRAP). The event was conceived to help introduce our youth to our organization and to help ensure the future of WRAP. The event was a huge success. It was decided to annually continue the exhibit and move it around the state. This year we are please to hold it in Verona hosted by the Verona Public Library.

Please consider sponsoring youth who share your interest in art in this fun exhibit and workshop. Your support will encourage young people to pursue a lifelong interest in art.

If you or your art group would like to see Bridging Generations continue and move around the state each year, volunteer. We will need art groups or individuals who would like to sponsor the event for next year. Planning for next year's exhibit can begin at any time! If you or your group are interested, contact WRAA president Mary Ann Inman at 608-676-4853 or inman_ma@yahoo.com

WRAA members may sponsor as many entrants as possible.

Please photocopy this form if needed.

Upon registration, you will receive information about attending the workshop day, July 17, 2010
